   1. Ben: Brainstorming initiatives for next year last committee meeting. Kate wants to do event on class with Brunswick community, but also aware of not putting town or individuals on display.

e. Student Activities Funding Committee—Irfan Alam ’18

i. Irfan: mandatory financial training for clubs, as they are given a lot of money, and at time don’t know how to handle that much money

   1. Leah: Dean Foster mentioned that the BOC was being led by someone new, is their budget shifting?

      a. Irfan: Part funding from Bowdoin grant, a lot of external money, and SAFC; new leadership won’t affect budget.

f. Executive Committee—Harriet Fisher ’17 / Reed Fernandez ’17

i. Harriet: thank you notes for people who have helped throughout the year
ii. Harriet: Discussions/Talks on Class

1. Ural: got the feeling that there were a lot of people who wanted to talk about class, but haven’t had the opportunity to do so. Bowdoin doesn’t do enough to enroll people who come from low socioeconomic backgrounds. Bowdoin doesn’t put resources to search out for low income students. More programming for class next year.

2. Harriet: They were two really awesome events

iii. Harriet: there’s an event for incoming students 8-9PM Friday that are interested in BSG. Leah and Ural are going.

1. Leah: Chem-free event at Russworm/Howell.

iv. Proposal from Ian and Spencer: Civic Engagement

1. Revision to article one, so that any student can come forward with proposal

   a. Ben: put a position in BSG that would mediate proposals from students and to help them through the process.

   b. Harriet: it should be someone’s explicit responsibility to help non-BSG students to make a proposal.

   c. Spencer: things need to be ironed out, just wanting to get people’s thoughts on the initial idea. Maybe if we keep it simple at first, and then make amendments after

   d. Kelsey: have someone to explicitly help someone, to give better insight on BSG logistics so we don’t have to reject a proposal for formatting or things that just would not be feasible at all.

e. Harriet: maybe have trainings in beginning of year to write proposals

f. Spencer: have someone that explicitly helps someone when people with proposals walk in to a meeting.

g. Harriet: fix and vote on it for two weeks.

v. Harriet: no meeting for ivies, then a few meetings, and then turn over power

vi. Harriet: get people to vote.

1. Carly: are we tabling to get people to vote?

   a. Reed: I’ll do it.
